

POKER GENERAL ROOM RULES

High Card ► One Pair ► Two Pairs ► Three of a Kind ► Straight ► Flush Full House ► Four of a Kind ► Straight Flush ► Royal Flush

1. CARDS SPEAK: The winner of any called or checked hand must expose all their cards prior to the pot being awarded. Cards read for themselves. Dealers will assist in the reading of hands to the best of their ability but it is the player's responsibility to protect his/her hand at all times.
2. ENGLISH ONLY WHILE THE CARDS ARE IN PLAY.
3. It is the players responsibility to protect their hand at all times. A player who fails to take reasonable means to protect their hand shall have no redress if their hand becomes fouled or the dealer accidentally collects the hand.
4. If a player wants to contest a pot, the player must do so immediately. Once the dealer presses the green button on the shuffler or deals out the cards for the next hand, all rights to the previous hand have been lost.
5. Electronic devices may be used while a player is seated at any of the poker tables; such as, but not limited to: cell phones, PDAs, I-Pods, head phones, or Bluetooth ear pieces. Talking/texting while in a hand is prohibited. Please note that any violations to this rule will disqualify (kill) the player's hand and money will not be refunded.
6. Foreign objects such as napkins, pocket books, etc. will not be allowed to be placed on any poker table.
7. Hoods, hats, or sunglasses may be worn at the poker table, however upon leaving the table, hoods or anything that covers the player's face must be removed.
8. Players are not allowed to communicate information about their hand to other players. This will result in both players' hands being disqualified (killed). Excessive violation of this rule will have the player(s) in question removed from the table and/or the poker room.
9. All players are responsible for making the best hand possible out of his/her cards and presenting their hand to the dealer face up, for review.
10. An incorrect amount of cards to any player may constitute a misdeal.
11. When calling a bet, it is the player's responsibility to determine the correct amount of on opponent's bet before calling, regardless of what is stated by others.
12. Tie hands split the pot.
13. An exposed card does not constitute a misdeal.
14. Players are not allowed to have side bets against each other.
15. Each betting round shall consist of (1) bet and/or (3) raises maximum in limit games. In no-limit games, unlimited raises are permitted.
16. Players may not change from one table to another without the consent of poker personnel.
17. In a new game, players who arrive at the table earliest get first choice of remaining seats. If multiple players want the same seat and arrive at the same time, the player that is higher on the list will have preference.
18. Players may not remove chips from the table except when quitting the game or paying for "incidentals" i.e. tips, food, cigarettes etc.
19. If a player returns to the same game within one hour of cashing out, the buy-in must equal the amount removed from the table. (For PLO games, the wait time must be two hours)
20. Passing chips between players is not allowed on any poker table.
21. A player has the right to an unimpeded view of an opponent's chips, when requested.
22. If a player taps the table or in any way indicates he/she passes it is considered a check.
23. If a player leaves the game for more than two absent buttons or 30 minutes, their chips will be picked up and the player will be put on the bottom of the player waiting list.
24. ALLOWABLE WAGERS/BETS:
 - a. All wagers shall be made with gaming chips.
 - b. It is the player's responsibility to protect his hand, chips, and valuables.
 - c. A short bet or call in which chips have been released may either be completed or forfeited.
25. STRING BETS are not allowed. If a bettor intends to raise, he should either put all the chips on the table at one time or announce that he is intending to raise.
26. Supervisors have the right to stop any player from drinking alcohol if they feel that the customer has had too much to drink.
27. Stalling, colluding or any other suspicious activity found to obtain a promotion in a dishonest manner is subject to disqualification at management's discretion.
28. HOUSE RAKE: The rake schedule is as follows:
